

The Flat Jane Austen Travel Log By JASNA EWANID

This is the Flat Jane Austen Travel Log, a history of Flat Jane's travels across the country and world, connecting Janeites everywhere. Before you send Flat Austen on her way, please take a moment to write a little travel log entry about her time with you, including dates, locations (just the city or "my home" or cool places you went), & your name (first & last, just the first, "A Lady/Gentleman"). It can be a line or two, a short paragraph, a doodle with a few succinct words. When you are finished, fold it up, put it in the envelope with Flat Austen, and send her off on her journey. Need a new page or there are too many in the envelope? Please email us at FlatJaneAusten@gmail.com. Cheers!
